Commercial enterprises were provided one and a half years from enactment of the statute to implement its requirements. The effective date of Title III of the ADA was January 26, 1992. 42 U.S.C. § 12181; 20 C.F.R. § 36.508(a).

7. Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 12181(7) and 28 C.F.R. § 36.104, PAPA JOHN'S is a place of public accommodation in that PAPA JOHN'S operates as a restaurant which provides food, beverages and services to the public.

8. Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 12181(7) and 28 C.F.R. § 36.104, the building and/or Subject Facility which is the subject of this action is a public accommodation covered by the ADA and which must be in compliance therewith.

9. The Plaintiff is informed and believes, and therefore alleges, that PAPA JOHN'S has begun operations and/or undergone substantial remodeling, repairs and/or alterations since January 26, 1992.

10. Defendants have discriminated, and continue to discriminate, against the Plaintiff, and others who are similarly situated, by denying full and equal access to, and full and equal enjoyment of, goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages and/or accommodations at PAPA JOHN'S in derogation of 42 U.S.C. § 12101 et. seq. and as prohibited by 42 U.S.C. §12182 et. seq., and by failing to remove architectural barriers pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §12182(b)(2)(a)(iv), where such removal is readily achievable.

11. The Plaintiff has been unable to, and continues to be unable to, enjoy full and equal safe access to, and the benefits of, all of the accommodations and services offered at PAPA JOHN'S. Prior to the filing of this lawsuit, the Plaintiff visited the subject property and was denied full and safe access to all of the benefits, accommodations and services of the Defendant, PAPA JOHN's restaurant. Prior to the filing of this lawsuit, KREISLER personally visited PAPA JOHN'S with the intention of using PAPA JOHN'S's facilities, but was denied full and safe access to the facilities within PAPA JOHN'S due to his mobility impairment and therefore suffered an injury in fact. In addition, Plaintiff continues to desire to visit PAPA JOHN'S in the future, but continues to be injured in that he is unable to and continues to be discriminated against due to the architectural barriers which remain at PAPA JOHN'S in violation of the ADA.

12. Pursuant to the mandates of 42 U.S.C. § 12134(a), on July 26, 1991, the Department of Justice, Office of the Attorney General, promulgated Federal Regulations to implement the requirements of the ADA, known as the Americans with Disabilities Act Accessibility Guidelines (hereinafter "ADAAG"), 28 C.F.R. Part 36, under which said Department may obtain civil penalties of up to $55,000 for the first violation and $110,000 for any subsequent violation.

13. The Defendants' Subject Facility is in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 12181 et. seq., the ADA, 28 C.F.R. § 36.302 et. seq., the 2010 ADA Standards for Accessible Design, and is discriminating against the Plaintiff as a result of inter alia, the following specific violations:

- i. Failure to provide an accessible entrance due to two steps and the failure to install a ramp with appropriate slope, or otherwise provide an accessible and properly designated entrance.
- ii. Failure to provide signage addressing people with disabilities telling them that accessible services are provided.
- iii. Failure to provide adequate directional and accurate informational signage.
- iv. Failure to provide any accessible seating within the restaurant due to fixed seating within the restaurant at inaccessible heights.
- v. Failure to provide an accessible counter, at an accessible height, where patrons dine in the subject facility.

14. Upon information and belief, there are other current violations of the ADA at PAPA JOHN'S and only once a full inspection is done can all said violations be identified.

15. To date, the readily achievable barriers and other violations of the ADA still exist and have not been remedied or altered in such a way as to effectuate compliance with the provisions of the ADA.

16. Pursuant to the ADA, 42 U.S.C. § 12101 et. seq., and 28 C.F.R. § 36.304, the Defendants were required to make the Subject Facility, a place of public accommodation, accessible to persons with disabilities since January 26, 1992. To date, the Defendants have
